Plaintiff also asserts supplemental state law claims.

3. Jurisdiction is found upon 28 U.S.C. §§1331, 1343 and 1367.

VENUE

4. Venue is properly laid in the Eastern District of New York under 28 U.S.C. §

1391(b), in that this is the District in which the claim arose.

JURY DEMAND

5. Plaintiff respectfully demands a trial by jury of all issues in this matter pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 38 (b).

PARTIES

6. Plaintiff TYRONE ADONIS is a twenty-seven year old African-American man residing in Brooklyn, New York.

7. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK was and is a municipal corporation duly organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of New York.

8. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK maintains the New York City Police Department, a duly authorized public authority and/or police department, authorized to perform all functions of a police department as per the applicable sections of the aforementioned municipal corporation, CITY OF NEW YORK.

9. That at all times hereinafter mentioned, the individually named defendants, SEAN FLANAGAN, FRANK RECCA, MATTHEW ROSIELLO, and JOHN and JANE DOE 1 through 10, were duly sworn police officers of said department and were acting under the supervision of said department and according to their official duties.

10. That at all times hereinafter mentioned the defendants, either personally or through their employees, were acting under color of state law and/or in compliance with the official rules, regulations, laws, statutes, customs, usages and/or practices of the State of New York and/or the City of New York.

11. Each and all of the acts of the defendants alleged herein were done by said defendants while acting within the scope of their employment by defendant CITY OF NEW YORK.

FACTS

12. On May 28, 2013, at approximately 12:20 a.m., plaintiff TYRONE ADONIS was a lawful pedestrian walking on a sidewalk and not engaged in any suspicious activity in the vicinity of Dean Street between Kingston Avenue and Brooklyn Avenue, Brooklyn, New York,.

13. Despite lacking a reasonable suspicion or justification to stop and/or arrest plaintiff, defendant NYPD Lieutenant SEAN FLANAGAN stopped ADONIS by driving his police car onto the sidewalk in front of ADONIS.

14. Defendant FLANAGAN pointed his gun at ADONIS and stated, in sum and substance, get on the fucking floor.

15. ADONIS immediately complied defendant FLANAGAN's order and went down to the ground with his chest on the ground.

16. Defendant FLANAGAN pressed his gun against the back of ADONIS'S head, grabbed ADONIS'S hands, pulled them behind his back, handcuffed ADONIS, and stated, in sum and substance, if you move an inch I'm going to blow your mother fucking brains out.

17. While ADONIS was restrained by handcuffs, multiple defendant officers, including SEAN FLANAGAN, FRANK RECCA, MATTHEW ROSIELLO, and other as of yet unidentified officers, repeatedly punched ADONIS on his face, back, and neck and kicked him on his body, or otherwise stood by and failed to intervene while this occurred in their presence.

18. The defendant officers picked ADONIS up, slammed him onto the hood of a vehicle, punched him on his face, and repeatedly punched him on his body.

19. The defendant officers then threw ADONIS inside a police vehicle and transported him to the NYPD's 77th precinct stationhouse.

20. Despite the defendants' brutal assault of ADONIS, which resulted in visible injuries, the defendants did not render or request medical attention for ADONIS.

21. The defendants instead continued ADONIS' unlawful arrest.

22. ADONIS was arraigned later that day on baseless charges filed in Kings County Criminal Court on docket no. 2013KN040675; said charges having been filed based on the false allegations of the defendant officers. The defendant officers initiated said prosecution with malice, and otherwise caused said prosecution to be commenced against plaintiff for the purpose of obtaining a collateral objective outside the legitimate ends of the legal process, to wit: in an effort to avoid discipline for the aforementioned acts of brutality.

23. The defendant police officers created and manufactured false evidence against ADONIS, which defendant RECCA conveyed to the Kings County District Attorney's Office causing said evidence to be used against ADONIS in the aforementioned legal proceeding.

24. As a result of the defendants' false allegations, ADONIS was compelled to return to court for eight court appearances, until June 19, 2014 when all the charges filed against ADONIS were adjourned in contemplation of dismissal.

25. Defendant officers FLANAGAN, RECCA, ROSIELLO, and JOHN and JANE DOE 1 through 10 either directly participated in and/or failed to intervene in the illegal conduct described herein.

26. Defendant Lieutenant FLANAGAN held a supervisory rank and participated in and/or otherwise oversaw and authorized the unlawful beating and arrest of plaintiff by defendants RECCA, ROSIELLO, and JOHN and JANE DOE 1 through 10.

27. All of the above occurred as a direct result of the unconstitutional policies, customs or practices of the City of New York, including, without limitation, the inadequate screening, hiring, retaining, training and supervising its employees with respect to the proper use of force, the probable cause required to arrest individuals, and due to discrimination against plaintiff due to his race and/or nationality, and pursuant to a custom or practice of falsification.

28. The aforesaid event is not an isolated incident. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK is aware (from lawsuits, notices of claims, and complaints filed with the NYPD's Internal Affairs Bureau, and the CITY OF NEW YORK'S Civilian Complaint Review Board) that many NYPD officers, including the defendants are insufficiently trained regarding: the use of force; the probable cause requirement necessary to arrest individuals, and engage in a practice of falsification.

29. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK is further aware that such improper training has often resulted in a deprivation of civil rights. Despite such notice, defendant CITY OF NEW YORK has failed to take corrective action. This failure caused the officers in the present case to violate the plaintiffs' civil rights.

30. Moreover, upon information and belief, defendant CITY OF NEW YORK was aware, prior to the incident, that the individual defendants lacked the objectivity, temperament, maturity, discretion, and disposition to be employed as police officers. Despite such notice, defendant CITY OF NEW YORK has retained these officers, and failed to adequately train and supervise them.

31. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff TYRONE ADONIS sustained, inter alia, physical injuries, emotional distress, embarrassment, and humiliation, and deprivation of his liberty and his constitutional rights.
